

Please do not allow the big corporate interests that are attempting to take over radio and quash competition to be successful. Satellite Radio has a unique place in the market in that numerous excellent options are offered that are otherwise unavailable, and reception is continuous and exceptional compared to the local stations. It is rediculous that you are even taking this challenge seriously.Regards,
Marty Hall